

FROM OCCUPATION TO LIBERATION:
VOICES WE NEED TO HEAR!

Workshop Descriptions

BACKGROUND TO THE OCCUPATION

Brice Harris

This is a workshop and not a presentation and will seek to focus on some of the controversial issues past and present in the conflict over the Holy Land.

CHALLENGING CHRISTIAN ZIONISM

Donald Wagner

Biblical and historical origins of the movement and implications for U.S. policy in the Middle East and interfaith relations.

CONNECTING WITH GAZA

Laila Al-Marayati

The situation in Gaza is extremely critical and slowly but surely collapsing. What can we, that are here, do to help those that are there?

INDIGENOUS PALESTINIAN CHRISTIANS: HISTORY & THE EMIGRATION PROBLEM

Naim Ateek & Rizek Abusharr

The story of the followers of Jesus- the "living stones"- from the beginning to the present-day churches and their witness and issues.

NON-VIOLENT RESISTANCE TO OCCUPATION

Joshua Keaney & Matt Hamsher

The seldom-heard stories in the West about heroic efforts and paradigms to counteract armed injustice. The workshop will focus on the ethics and current forms of resistance.

A JEWISH PERSPECTIVE ON PALESTINE

Anna Baltzer

A human rights advocate discusses the conflict, the ongoing occupation, and nonviolent resistance to the daily obstacles and perils of a people.

ACTIVISM IN THE MARKETPLACE: SUPPORTING PALESTINIAN FAIR TRADE

Robert Massoud, Bill Foote

Ways the average American can be in solidarity with economically-starved wage earners, including learning about volunteer opportunities in Nablus with Project Hope.

ACTIVISM ON CAMPUS: CONFRONTING THE ISRAEL-PALESTINE ISSUE

Pouneh Behin & Lana Khoury

A workshop dedicated to student activism and lead by student activists. Come learn about the history and impact that student activism has had. Non-students are also welcome to attend.

U.S. POLICY TOWARDS ISLAM & ITS IMPACT ON PALESTINE

Hussam Ayloush

The extent of hostility towards Islam and Muslims – is it connected to how Palestine is treated?

PALESTINIAN CITIZENS OF ISRAEL

Nabila Espanioly

One out of every five citizens of Israel is a Palestinian Arab. A look at their life and the obstacles they face.

EFFECTS OF OCCUPATION ON WOMEN & CHILDREN

Catherine Nichols

Struggles affecting education, health and home along with issues of humiliation and dispossession.
