Sponsorship Opportunities

Ending the Silence: Voices from the Holy Land

Kansas City
Sabeel Conference
October 20-21, 2006

Village
Presbyterian Church
Prairie Village, Kansas

A regional conference to inform the community about current realities in Palestine and Israel, including the plight of Palestinian Christians.

“Blessed are the peacemakers.”

We welcome your sponsorship of the Kansas City Sabeel Conference!

The Kansas City Sabeel Conference is a two-day educational and advocacy conference on the conflict in Palestine-Israel and how it impacts our Christian sisters and brothers living in the land of Jesus' birth.

The regional conference at Village Presbyterian Church will be the next-best thing to a trip to the Holy Land. It will provide an unparalleled opportunity for American Christians and others to learn first-hand how we can help bring peace to Palestine—and assistance to the “forgotten faithful” of the church.

This conference will provide two tracks: one for those who want basic history and information about the conflict and the other for seasoned activists to network and learn ways to work towards a just peace.

In order for the conference to be successful, we are asking area churches, community organizations and individuals to sponsor this event. Your support of the conference will help with expenses in the following areas: publicity, conference materials, speaker honorarium and travel. The conference will include:

- 4-6 major presentations from invited speakers
- Many workshop sessions on a variety of topics
- Middle East banquet and cultural entertainment

Contact information:

- Janet Baker, Chair of the Justice, Peace, and Environment Committee, (913) 649-9439
- Andrea Whitmore, Chair of Citizens for Justice in the Middle East, (913) 236-9825

Conference Speakers

Speakers will include prominent American and Palestinian Christians such as Rev. Alex Awad, Dean of Students at Bethlehem Bible College, Rev. Sandra Olewine, former United Methodist liaison in Jerusalem and Rev. Fahed Abu-Akel, former moderator of the Presbyterian Church (USA); American and Israeli Jews such as Phyllis Bennis, fellow at Institute for Policy Studies, and Jeff Halper, 2006 Nobel Peace Prize nominee; and many others who are active in the struggle for peace with justice. All will be experts in their fields.

About Sabeel

Sabeel (Arabic word for “the way”) believes justice is served by following the Gospel teachings on compassion and non-violence and by promoting human rights, international law and democratic principles. The Sabeel Center is an international gathering place where Christian delegations from Europe and North America learn more about Palestinians living under Israeli occupation.
