

Sabeel Conference Schedule
Justice: The Path to Peace in Palestine-Israel
September 28-29, 2012
Immanuel Presbyterian Church

Friday, September 28

- 8:30 – 8:45 Invocation, Reverend David Cameron, Immanuel Presbyterian Church
- 8:45 – 9:30 Interfaith panel, Reverend Cameron, moderator
A Question of Justice: Faith Based Approaches to the Path to Peace in Palestine-Israel
- Rev. Naim Ateek
 - Rabbi Lynn Gottlieb
 - Imam Shafi
- 9:30 – 10:30 Rev. Don Wagner address, The Tragic Denial of Justice in Our Churches: Evangelical and Mainline Protestant Forms of Christian Zionism
- 10:45 – 11:45 Workshops
- Miko Peled, Moving from Zionism to a Secular Democracy
 - Elena Ortiz, Paradise Lost: the Transgenerational Legacies of Life Under Occupation: Native American and Palestinian Cultural Survival
 - Gary Anderson, Water Denied: Justice Denied
 - The U.S. Campaign to End the Occupation, Ending Military Aid to Israel, Approaching our Elected Officials
 - Jewish Voices for Peace, Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions
- 12:00 – 1:00 Lunch: Main speakers will be available for audience questions
- 1:00 – 2:00 Rev. Naim Ateek address, Justice: The Sabeel [the Way] to Peace in Palestine-Israel
- 2:15 – 3:15 Ali Abunimah address, Standing Up for Justice and Equal Rights in Palestine: How to Win the Struggle Ahead
- 3:30 – 4:30 Workshops
- Les Field, Zionism in Relation to Judaism after 1948
 - Creativity for Peace, Bringing Palestinian and Israeli girls together
 - Miko Peled, Moving from Zionism to a Secular Democracy (repeated from morning session)
 - Ziad Abbas, The Impact of the Arab Spring on Palestinian Refugees and the Right of Return
 - Jewish Voice for Peace, Pro Israeli Public Relations Strategies in the US: Analysis and Counter-strategies
- 4:45 – 5:15 Entertainment, Palestinian Debka dancers
- 5:15 - 6:30 Dinner and Entertainment, Fellowship Hall

5:30-Stephen Miller on guitar/singing
6:00-Hakim Bellamy

6:45 – 8:15 Jeff Halper keynote address, From Two States to Apartheid to Warehousing: Where Do We Go From Here?

Saturday, September 29

8:45 – 9:00 Invocation, Msgr. Richard Olona, St. Martin's Catholic Church

9:00 – 10:00 Mark Braverman address, Beyond Interfaith Dialogue: The Kairos Palestine Call and the Challenge to the Church

10:15 – 11:15 Workshops

- Naim Ateek and Rabbi Lynn Gottlieb, Biblical and Post-Biblical Theologies of Restorative Justice
- Bekah Wolf, Grassroots Palestine: Eyewitness Account of Nonviolent Resistance in Occupied Palestine
- Hebah Ahmed & Zayd Leseman, Humanizing the Other: A Workshop on Combating Islamophobia
- Iris Keltz and Pamela Olson, Retelling History Through Personal Narrative
- Jeff Halper, Global Palestine: Exporting the Occupation

11:30 – 12:30 Nadia Hijab address, Shaping a Different U.S. Policy toward the Palestinians: What Would It Take? – Comment/response by Kathy Christison

12:45 – 1:45 Lunch
Lunchtime workshop, Activism: What's Possible? Examining Some Successful Models (Students for Justice in Palestine, and the U.S Campaign to End the Occupation)

2:00 – 2:15 Invocation from Imam Campos-Marquetti

2:15 – 3:45 Closing Panel on Activism: Responding to the Crisis in Palestine: A Time for Advocacy and Activism, Ali Abunimah, Mark Braverman, Nadia Hijab, Jewish Voice for Peace; Kathy Christison, Moderator

3:45 – 4:15 Naim Ateek, Don Wagner concluding remarks, honoring Dick Toll

Sunday, Sept. 30: Rev. Naim Ateek to speak at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church.

Please note: Registration is available online at the Friends of Sabeel North America (FOSNA) web site →Conferences →Albuquerque Conference

Note: Times may be subject to change; contact rerickson56@comcast.net if questions